Greg

Greg possesses a variety of Warehouse and Stores skills and has been a valued member of the Exact Industrial team since 2006. More than capable of completing General Stores, Dispatch, Orders and everything in between in any environment makes Greg one of the most versatile candidates available. Completing both long and short term contracts for Exact, Greg has always received great feedback from clients, has unfathomable loyalty and reliability and is an asset to every company he is assigned to.

Stephen

Stephen is a 1st class Forklift Driver with proficient and accurate high reach and counter balance fork experience. His capability to perform all warehouse tasks autonomously and efficiently makes him one of the most requested Fork Drivers by our Transport and Logistics clients. His proven work ethic and approachable personality makes him a top candidate for any role and one with great career prospects in this industry. Stephen is not only a fantastic team player but has great leadership qualities and a motivated work attitude that makes him an outstanding member of our team and yours.
